DAY 2: Historic Ross Island & North Bay Excursion

Journey to Port Blair & Ross Island

Morning

After a hearty breakfast at your hotel, embark on a private boat excursion for the North Bay and Ross Island Day Trip. Your first stop is Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Island (Ross Island), where you can walk among the fascinating British colonial ruins. Friendly deer and majestic peacocks roam freely through the lush, historic sanctuary. The route remains anchored by Ross Island, North Bay Island and Port Blair.

Afternoon

Continue your island-hopping adventure to North Bay Island, famous for its vibrant coral reefs and marine life. Your family can indulge in exciting water activities or simply relax on the sandy shores while taking in the beautiful views. The pristine waters and scenic backdrop provide the perfect setting for memorable family photographs. The route remains anchored by Ross Island, North Bay Island and Port Blair.

Evening

Return to the main island of Port Blair in the late afternoon via your private transfer. Spend your evening at leisure, perhaps exploring the local markets for unique handicrafts or enjoying a relaxed stroll. Conclude your day with a fine dining experience, savoring fresh local delicacies. The evening is shaped for an elegant close to Ross Island, North Bay Island and Port Blair, with the route returning toward comfort after the main island experiences.

Overnight Stay

Retreat to Hotel Sentinel in Port Blair for your final night in the capital. Enjoy the peaceful ambiance and prepare for your journey to the outer islands tomorrow.
